SGD-150

Graphic Software

Description

The SGD-150 is a Scada Software that has been developed to offer a complete graphic package for medium and big analogue system. This software has to be used with DETNOV CAD-150 analogue fire control panel family.

SGD-150 offers the best solution in graphic monitoring of intelligent fire alarm systems. This package, interfaces directly with your fire alarm system, reporting detailed and visual information where the events are happening in your facility, so the safest, most efficient action can be taken. Remote controlling of fire system is allowed; performing resets the analogue system, mute sounders, activate sounders etc.

SGD-150 is a software Scada designed to help facility managers and personnel quickly assess and react to alarm and trouble situations. SGD-150 monitors all addressable fire alarm systems and provides complete device detail and event updates, with just a few clicks.

Features

o   Device Configuration
o   Real time monitoring performance o   Analysis of data stored o   Reporting
o   Integration with other systems o   User levels with password o   Generating graphical
o   Multiple Concurrent Users
o   Remote Monitoring

detnov

Applications

SGD-150 graphic software, is the ideal choice to help facility managers and personnel quickly assess and react to alarm and trouble situations. It is ideal to cover all the medium and big installation's requirements. Their typical application are: shopping malls, schools, industries, etc.

Technical features

Server
OS Windows XP or superior
IP connection
Client
WEB Browser
Multiplatform (Linux, MAC, Windows)
Java

●detnov